WORKSHOP FOR FUTURE LAW STUDENTS

DAYTON, Ohio, January 7, 1986 -- The University of Dayton School of Law will hold a free workshop and lunch for prospective law students on Tuesday, January 14, 1986. The three-hour workshop will be held at 9 a.m. and repeated at 1:30 p.m.

The program provides general information about the study of law. Topics will include: methods of legal education; tips on law library use; attendance in law classes; tours of the law school building; advice from current law students; and information on admission, financial aid and placement. Much of the information is general enough to apply to most accredited law schools in the United States.

From noon to 1 p.m., a hot dog lunch will be provided and participants will join current UD law students for a guest lecture.

Anyone who holds or will soon receive a bachelor's degree is welcome. Interested persons need not have applied for admission to the UD School of Law to participate.

For more information or for registration, call the School of Law at 229-3211 by Monday, January 13.

The Prospective Student Workshop is co-sponsored by the School of Law and the undergraduate chapter of Phi Alpha Delta, a legal fraternity of the University of Dayton.
